She produced in the region of Metz (Moselle) between 1925 and 1935

The techniques of realization are: acid etching, cold decoration, hot enamelling and size,

This ephemeral glassware was created around 1925/1926 and will stop its production in 1939

Founded by Henry BLOCH of Alsatian origin, he settled in Sarrebourg where he married. In this city, he opened a business of glassware and earthenware.

In 1913, the Bloch family moved to Metz where he founded a new store still in the glassware and earthenware branch.

Henry Bloch's son, Marcel, took over shortly after and opened a decoration workshop under the name of VERAMÉ.

In collaboration with the Meisenthal glassworks, the decorative workers adorn objects in raw, clear, colored or multi-layered glass using acid etching. The Second World War put an end to the activity of the company.
