Drapery Necklace With Wrought Iron Spikes From The Nineteenth Century

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Length : 44,5 centimètres

Width : 1,8 centimètres pour le coeur le plus large

Description

A drapery necklace in solid and hollow hearts The solids, the bottoms are in brass The hollows, the bottoms are in steel, there are two slightly different ones The stones are in wrought iron imitating diamonds Are set individually The steel is polished shiny In good condition Atypical jewelry specific to an era... Note, this way of working steel in jewelry dates back to the 18th century with work on belt buckles or shoe buckles... Weight...34 gr

Dealer

Signature Antiquité
Collectibles and charm items
Mobile : 0685024976

67 Rue Nationale
Lectoure 32700