

Vintage System Furniture

550 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Teak

Description

Discover this magnificent vintage system furniture from the 60s, a real teak find found in Denmark in Aarhus. This piece of furniture represents the iconic Scandinavian style of the time, with its elegant and functional design. Made of teak, this piece of furniture consists of two modular shelves and a box with two sliding doors that open onto a single shelf. This configuration provides versatile storage space, allowing you to customize the layout to suit your needs. Teak, known for its natural beauty and durability, gives this piece of furniture timeless warmth and elegance. Its natural wood color blends perfectly with any type of decoration, adding a touch of character and authenticity to your interior. It is important to note that this piece of furniture has some marks, visible in the photo, which bear

Dealer

Les Belles Vies

Specialist in vintage furniture

Mobile : 0627734888

35 rue Pierre Carlier

Montigny-Les-Cormeilles 95370

witness to its history and its experience. These imperfections add charm and originality to the whole, making this piece of furniture a unique piece. With dimensions of H134.5cm x W83.5cm x D45.5cm, this vintage piece of furniture fits easily into various living spaces, whether in your living room, office or even your bedroom. Its elegant look and functionality make it an ideal choice for lovers of retro design and quality. Treat yourself to this superb vintage teak cabinet from the 60s, from Denmark and steeped in history. It will bring a touch of timeless Scandinavian style to your interior, while offering practical and aesthetic storage possibilities.