Description

Rare armchair called joined arm chair from the beginning of the 17th century Charles I period.

We see it from the same region as that one of Sothebys with a superb carved back decorated with flowers and its two uprights carved on the upper and lower part West Yorkshire region

Very beautiful armrests ending with crocks

It rests on a very beautiful turned foot

Restorations of uses

A very similar sold at Sothebys. This one was a bit later made than ours
