Description

Three-seater sofa in burl walnut, with a boat-shaped structure, in the Restoration style. The seat with straps, springs and animal hair, the backrest and the interior and exterior sides are upholstered in a fabric with wine red stripes and gold edging, underlined with braid. The curved armrests maintain a slightly hectic backsplash in the style of a policeman's hat. The massive amounts, with butts, and the feet, are carved with volutes and leaves. The crosspiece, placed vertically, is embellished with a softened half-round along its entire length. This three-seater sofa in burl walnut will appeal for the quality of its essence and its very harmonious design.  Period: 1st part of the 19th century Excellent condition. Waxed finish.
