Description

Discover this magnificent antique mirror in the Louis Philippe style, adorned with a charming golden color and coming from the city of Amiens. This mirror is a real treasure, combining elegance and history. The mirror has been carefully restored in our workshop. A slat of the parquet floor has been replaced in order to preserve its integrity and restore it to its former glory. In addition, we cleaned it entirely, giving it a radiant appearance. This antique mirror, of French origin, is made of high quality glass. Its golden color brings a touch of refinement to your space, enhancing the aesthetics of your interior. The Louis Philippe style is distinguished by its timeless elegance and sobriety. This mirror perfectly embodies these characteristics, adding a touch of sophistication to your decor. Please note
