Description

Large round Japanese porcelain dish from the 19th century, with polychrome and gilding decoration. Benefiting from a wall hanging, this object is richly painted with multicolored vegetation surrounding two scenes illustrating a pagoda sheltered under a cherry tree. Stylized friezes where geometric patterns and delicate arabesques alternate, make this dish a glowing testimony to Japanese craftsmanship of the 19th century.  Period: Late 19th century Very good general condition. Slight wear to the gilding. Shipping with careful packaging and appropriate protection. Dimensions: Diameter: 41 cm Height: 8 cm Weight: 6.8 kg Ref: 100123 Ter
