Description

Painting of Chinese origin and from the 19th century Qing dynasty period representing a landscape. Very good quality of realization for this landscape work with the river animated by characters and boats at the quay. Note the two central characters, travelers, heading towards a property at the foot of the magnificently represented mountains. A story is clearly told here with the presence at the top right of a text to be deciphered. Piece also accompanied by its magnificent period frame inlaid with ivory. Dimensions of the frame 47 by 43 cm. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
