Description

We present this very pretty earthenware helmet ewer from the 18th century Louis XIV period. For the origin we think of it from Rouen but we are a little expectant because we also thought of Delft. We are taken by time so we say Rouen or Delft and this evening or tomorrow with a clear head we will do additional research and it is possible that we bring a correction or a certainty. Inside the pedestal a monogram V H. It is in perfect condition at first sight, very pretty piece of shape and not common. We are going to ask for 2000 Euros, we found one in result at 4500 Euros.
