Description

This modern painting The violinist in front of the sea, produced around 1930 by a school in the North, plunges us into a naturalistic scene. In a natural environment with trees, lawn and sea, the painting is balanced on the left below by the village and its church to finish on the right above, with a car. The strength is given in a central position by the group of characters with slender bodies. Each has its well-defined place and individually animates this moment of rest, contemplation, ode to music. This realistic painting of great length allows us to be actors in this very decorative scene. Illegible signature lower right. In very good condition with frame (slight losses). Dimensions without frame: H 58 cm / W 120 cm Dimensions with frame: H 75 cm / W 139 cm
