Abstract painting with different touches of color. In the spirit of abstract expressionism. Signed on the back. Missing at bottom left visible corner. Good general state. Dimensions: 194.7 x 129.6 cm. ---- "Danish painter. Originally a student of piano, music theory and composition, he later studied at the Royal Danish Academy of Art in Copenhagen and the Académie des Beaux-Arts in Paris. Birkemose's works were inspired by the New York School of painting and are famous for their hidden forms, some of which take a lot of effort to discover. Examples of these forms include demonic creatures, mermaids, birds, and cats. Birkemose won the Eckersberg Medal in 1991 and has been represented in several museums in Denmark, including the Danish National Gallery, Statens Museum for Kunst.
