Description

By Reynaud Levieux, (Nîmes, 1613 - Rome, 1699), or by his workshop, here is the star painting by this southern artist, he must have painted it, or had it painted by his students, a good hundred times, allowing him thus to indulge in religious art on churches of our region, Collector who sold it to me (has bought in poor condition), had made one partial restoration, mounted on very thick cardboard; no repaints, but masking of gaps and chips in the dark backgrounds, covered by a thick varnish. On my yellow arrows photo, I show you locations of these fillings. Take a good look at our photos. Dimensions: 55cm x 37.5cm x 1cm
