Description

Beautiful Louis XVI armchair with a redone seat with animal hair padding and straps. This one is covered with a thick washable gray fabric and embellished with piping. This armchair, squared to reinforce its solidity, has a delicately crafted solid walnut structure. Indeed, sculptures of flowers and acanthus leaves in relief are accompanied by friezes of ovals. The armrests form crosses reminiscent of the elegant scrolls of the Louis XVI style. This seat rests on four tapered and fluted legs. Refined and elegant, this low armchair will delight with its sculpted ornamentation and quality upholstery.  Period: Late 19th century Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop.
