Description

Superb pedestal table in rosewood veneer inlaid with nets, arabesques and boxwood palmettes. This living room table has an oval top, with subtle veining, the perimeter of which is embellished with two boxwood fillets. The edge of the top and the belt are also underlined with two strips of light wood contrasting with the deep hue of the rosewood. This top rests on a large central foot whose concave sides are encrusted with beautiful arabesques and scrolls. This shaft is extended by four large moving feet, the top of which is encrusted with large palmettes. Very elegant, this Charles X pedestal table is a charming and charismatic piece of furniture, highlighted by its beautiful patina. *****
