Symbolism of the peach in Asia

In China, the peach is surely the best known of all the fruits symbolizing immortality: it is a recurring element of Chinese legends. It gives whoever eats it, eternal youth and immortality. It is systematically found whether in ancient China, in feng shui or even in Taoism. Ripening only once every three thousand years, the celestial peach tree is the object of all the desires of mere mortals. It also happens that peaches are offered to newlyweds to bring them happiness, luck and fertility. Peach blossoms are often compared to a young bride, with a pale and delicate complexion.
