Dutch Ceremonial Furniture From The Mid-eighteenth Century

6 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Oak

Length : 114

Height : 207

Depth : 55

Description

Original ceremonial furniture of Dutch mid-eighteenth century. Stand 3 in 1 in a minimum of space, it is in fact composed of a 3 drawer chest crossbow façade, part secretary to abatant composed of a central door and many small drawers and finally a top part showcase style (closed with 2 doors) to show the wealth and culture of the owners, this part being reserved for art objects. This furniture is oak but not the same as in our regions, much finer grain and more valuable appearance, Drawer interiors are also oak. This furniture is in perfect condition

Dealer

Laurent Applancourt
meubles porcelaines tableaux xviii
Tel : 06 81 25 04 39
Mobile : 06 81 25 04 39

24 rue grande
Le Petit-Andély 27700