This yarn gives a resistant surface and a beautiful color palette.
They have in common that they are now woven with cotton warp threads and a weft thread between each row of knots.
The patterns are often geometric, but there are also very elaborate floral patterns.
Newer, post-1980 rugs are often made of synthetic colors and lower quality wool than older rugs.
In general, it can be said that Malayer rugs are very good rugs for everyday use.
the family of Hamadan rugs includes types of rugs, such as Bortchalou, Enjilas, Hosseinabad, Lilihan, Khamse, Zanjan and the Malayer, model that we present.
These carpets are also sometimes sold under the general name of hamadan, carpets which encompass many villages.
This quality piece has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
