

Andrea Pagnacco (venice, 1937-)

400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 71cm

Height : 59cm

Description

Pop singer.

The painting by Venetian painter, born in 1937.

Technique: oil on canvas.

Signed in full lower right and on the back of the canvas: Andrea Pagnacco.

It represents a singer from the 1970s with a voluminous hairdo and dark glasses with a microphone.

In 20th century frame.

Very good condition.

Biographical notes on the painter: Andrea Pagnacco, painter and engraver, was born in 1937 in Venice.

He began exhibiting from 1958.

His artistic talents were recognized by the Bevilacqua La Masa Foundation in Venice which awarded him a scholarship for a few years in the

Dealer

Antichità di Alina

Peintures anciennes - Art nouveau - Art déco, micromosaïques, porcelaine

Mobile : +39 3383199131

Via Maggio 63 / rosso

Firenze 50100

form of an atelier in Palazzo Carminati. He lives and works in Venice and Wabern-Berna (Switzerland).

He later participated in important art events such as the Suzzara Prize, the Turin Quadrennial, the Michetti Prize of Francavilla al Mare, the Basel Art Fair, the New York Artexpo, etc. His personal exhibitions have been set up in Venice, Milan, Brescia, Bari, Ferrara, Rome, Bonn, Verona, Geneva, Zurich, Basel, etc.

Pagnacco has always been interested in linoleumgraphy and is a member of the Associazione Incisori Veneti.

He has participated in the art fairs of Basel, New York, Bologna and Bari.

He has more than two hundred collective and group exhibitions to his credit and over 70 solo exhibitions in Italy and abroad.

He collaborates with the weekly "L'Eco", published in Basel, with articles on figurative art.

In the past years he has manually interested himself in cinema with a set of experimental shorts.