Description

Its wavy facade is punctuated by lovely pull handles and keyholes in gilded bronze, drawing the lines of a secretary in the style and period of Louis XV, in the taste of south-west France furniture. The whole, thin and light, rises on pretty little baluster feet and forms an elegant bedroom or office piece of furniture. Once unfolded, the tray becomes a writing tablet. Behind, two rows of three drawers form shelves and allow you to keep letters, papers and pens. This scriban is in perfect condition.
