Description

Japanese porcelain oil lamps embellished with bronze and dating from the middle of the 19th century. These plump lamps, with swollen and flared necks, are decorated with scenes of life at the court of the emperor against a background of flowers, leaves, fruits and butterflies. The globes, in opaque glass, rest on a spout decorated with petals, pearls and acanthus leaves. These lamps rest on chiseled bronze bases decorated with shells, foliage and scrolls. Witnesses of a bygone era, these lamps will shine with their charm and their Asian spirit. ***** Period:
