Description

Important model with floral decoration on a cream background composed of red and orange flowers, green rosebuds, green and bluish foliage and a large decorative band that seems to imitate lace.

The handles are formed by two dolphins with tangled tails.

The stamp attests to a manufacture around 1875.

This cache-pot illustrates the know-how of the Manufacture de Gien, by combining an original Renaissance-inspired form with a perfectly mastered floral decoration.

The total diameter is 43 cm, the height 20 cm and
