Description

DUCROS Edouard (1856-1936)

"Fishing boats in front of the Saint Genest church in Martigues"

Oil on panel,
Signed and dated 1921 lower right,

Beautiful luminous work by the Aixois painter Edouard Ducros, friend of Cézanne, which represents a view of Saint Genest church from the canal in Martigues.

After a brilliant career as a lawyer, solicitor and then clerk at the Court of Appeal of Aix en Provence, Edouard Ducros decided to give up his job to devote himself to painting.
