Description

Coffee table in gilded bronze from the 1960s representing two ibexes or ibexs. Very beautiful middle table decorated with these two animals facing each other, supporting the original bevelled glass top in excellent condition thanks to their outstretched horns. Table listed as an essential work by this great designer Alain Chervet from the middle of the 20th century. Note the beautiful patina of the original untouched gilt bronzes and the very good condition of the beveled period glass. Collector's piece and more utilitarian and decorative, it will be a source of joy for its new owner and moreover an excellent investment. Possibility of delivery in France and worldwide.
