Description

Very beautiful porcelain vase in the style of Samson Edmé's Compagnie des Indes. Superb decor with coat of arms of prancing dogs. Gorgeous colors! Fo dog lid. In fine gold gilding. Sumptuous work. In very good condition (slight small chip at the base of the vase recolored with black marker by the squire. 4 to 5 mm.) not visible once placed. Total height of 49 cm by 21 wide. Another model on my Proantic page just before this one, can form a visually interesting pair in decoration. From the same place: Bordeaux castle. Do not miss ! Very beautiful old room from the 19th century. Notice to collectors and lovers of beautiful vases! Magnificent and rare!
