Description

Large Bambara Mali crest mask. These masks were worn during agricultural festivals, this one is the male, he represents an antelope mixed with the sun, he still has his rattan headdress covered with fabrics, cowries and animal fringes, small jewels in glass beads, it is very rare to have them complete as here. Good condition, wear and stains, beautiful brown patina of use, this mask danced, around 1960. Former Belgian Serge Sheer collection. Height 90cm. I advise you on the subject the book of the Branly museum => CIWARA
