Description

Exceptional painting from the 19th century, probably an artist from South America, signature to decipher? Barrilla's Mercedes? Representing a scene of farm women with children with their animals around, superbly treated by the painter with great realism and accuracy! Quite large format of 67 x 48 cm without frame. In very good shape ! In his juice ! Traces of small retouching over time. Lots of details in this South American oil. Rare on the art market! Do not miss ! Magnificent painting highlighting the labor and work of farmers!
