Description

Beautiful sideboard in solid walnut, shallow, composed on the front of two wide doors with mitred framing with interior moldings, darkened with panels arranged in an open book, bringing symmetry and harmony. Its doors are decorated with original keys and locks in working order, accompanied by wooden entries. They open onto a storage space with adjustable shelves on racks. In the middle of this piece of furniture, a drawer in the upper part is also equipped with an original lock with wooden entry. Below, a pilaster is made of walnut with subtle veining, arranged in an open book. This row is topped with a framed top with a single well-joined panel. This piece of furniture will charm you with its sobriety, the quality of its wood and its small size. *****
