Description

Box in the style of Alfred Louis Achille Daguet (1875-1942).

This small box is made of wood, entirely covered with embossed copper plates and decorated with glass paste cabochons of different colors: turquoise, garnet, malachite, pale pink, lapis lazuli.

Original paper lining.

This very decorative box is reminiscent of a reliquary hunt and could very well adorn a private chapel or serve as a jewelry box, cigar cellar, etc...

Circa 1900

20 x 18.5 x 13 cm.
