Description

Wrought iron estate gate Directory, dating from the late eighteenth century, in perfect condition.
Its bars cross two strainers with bulging holes and its frieze of openwork spears, of a height of 27 cm, has in its center a peak provided with a francisque.
Its beat is adorned with a Greek cushioned by a volute and a rhombus typical of this style, its shoe has been redone identically.
The section of its frames is 30 mm square, the height of the hinge is 230 cm, its fixing laces have been restored.
