Description

Pair of polychrome earthenware vases from the end of the 19th century in the art nouveau style. Very nice pair of large vases, 47 cm high, in magnificent colors from the famous Longchamp factory in the 19th century, created in 1831 and at its peak at the time of our vases in the 1880s. Note the presence of goat heads typical of this manufacture and the magnificent polychrome decoration embellished with large butterflies. Perfect original condition of details such as colors. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
