Description

A Japanese large boxwood netsuke depicting a fascinating scene, represented with great detail, holding the bridle of his noble steed with his hands.

Next to the sage, a child approaches, holding a scroll. The use of boxwood in the making of this netsuke with wise man on horseback gives a natural and warm touch to the work. There are inlays on the horse.

Signed 'Tomokazu' ?? under the base in a mother of pearl plug.

Origin: Japan

Period: Edo 19th century
