

Architectural Elements In Glazed Sandstone A. Bigot With Scallop And Grape Patterns

5 500 EUR

Signature : Alexandre Bigot

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Sandstone

Length : 73

Width : 53 cm

Height : 4

Description

Set of frieze architectural elements, in glazed sandstone. Intaglio marking on the back "Grès de Bigot" Patterns of scallops and grapes. 22 scallop panels, 16 linear meters minimum. All the panels are quite rugged (see photos). Some panels have all their parts, others do not. The lot is to be taken as is. Visible by appointment at the Dauphine Market in Saint-Ouen. Alexandre Bigot is a reference in terms of craftsmanship and sandstone work. He worked with the greatest architects of the Art Nouveau period, creating the most emblematic facades, vestibules and fireplaces of this movement.

Dealer

Belladone

Curiosities and old strange decoration

Mobile : 06 21 79 34 99

Marché Dauphine, 132 rue des Rosiers

Saint-Ouen 93400