Description

Beautiful and large Louis XV style armchair, flat backrest called "à la Reine", decorated with flowers, manufacture from the very end of the 19th century. Our seat rests on four arched legs sculpted with acanthus leaves. The turbulent backrest is adorned, like the front crosspiece, with a charming decoration of flowers. The woodwork is in walnut and oak. She is pegged and very stable. The covering fabric is in tapestry with velvet reliefs and has a beautiful floral decoration. This fabric is very lightly and discreetly grained on one of the armrests (see photos). The seat is comfortable. A recent resangling was carried out (see last photo).
