lines, placed on a midnight blue field surrounded by abundantly worked borders of numerous rosettes.

These shades underline this skilful floral design in the great tradition of Persian art, inspired by the miniatures of the school of Tabriz, then capital of the Persian Empire.

The fringes are clean, short and finish this carpet of very good quality.

The kerk wool is the softest of the wools, taken from under the belly and under the neck of the lambs, during the first shearing.

This carpet dates from the 1960s, is in perfect condition.

This piece would make a great office decor.

Tabriz (Azeri: Təbriz/ تهریز, formerly Tauris), is the capital of East Azerbaijan Province in northwestern Iran (Iranian Azerbaijan).

It lies on the course of the Talkheh River (also called Aji-Chai), near Lake Urmia, close to the borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan and Armenia. Tabriz is the door of Persia from north to west, Tabriz carpets have an extreme importance in the quality of Persian carpets and a wonderful international reputation.

The Tabriz are among the most popular carpets in the world, their work is always very fine and durable over time.

This rug has been professionally and environmentally cleaned.
