Description

Ivory manju netsuke depicting Chok'aro, a character from Japanese tradition, trying to catch a miniature horse that is running away from its gourd.

This netsuke shows Chok'aro in a dynamic pose, his eyes intent on catching the fleeing horse. The details are finely engraved and carved in low relief, allowing you to appreciate his determined expression and traditional clothing.

The back of the manju is enriched with an engraving of a horse running looking back.

The netsuke is signed Ippô-sai.
