Description

Charismatic painting representing a man of God raising his eyes to heaven and opening his arms in a sign of prayer and humility. He wears a hat and dons a hooded cape over his thick robe. At his feet, food is placed: a pheasant, vegetables, cereals and a jar. An intriguing scene that questions. Surrounding the canvas, a magnificent frame carved in gilded wood fits perfectly with this scene. Rich in ornamentation, it has stylized moldings and sculptures forming arabesques and scrolls in its four corners. With the most beautiful effect, this symbolic work attracts the eye and encourages contemplation. ***** Period: Early 19th century Excellent condition.
