Double gilt bronze bust representing a mother holding her child in her arms. A smiling woman embraces her toddler and directs her gaze towards him. The child seems calm and looks at his mother. The sculpture was made during the Art Deco era, as evidenced, for example, by the woman's hairstyle, characteristic of the interwar period.

Gilt bronze, marble.

Alexandre Ouline (active 1918-1940) - Belgian sculptor, mainly active in France. Known for his sculptures depicting muscular men or animals in expressive poses.

Art Deco, 1920s/30s. Signed "BRONZE,
