Description

José's dream, oil on canvas, Sevillian school, second half of the 17th century.

Scene representing one of Saint Joseph's dreams, probably the second dream in which the angel warns Saint Joseph of the danger so that he leaves Bethlehem and flees to Egypt. From an artistic point of view, this piece reminds us of painters like Francisco Antolínez Sarabia. The natural environment of the scene reminds us, together with the format of the canvas, of the works of the said Sevillian painter.
