Description

Very beautiful German cabinet probably black forest dated 1590 in walnut.

The drawers as well as the door have superb chiseled locks. Which is a monumental work and a sign of the beautiful provenance of the cabinet.

The door is decorated with two coats of arms representing bears. A bear on a coat of arms and the other a bear on a helmet.

We can find the date 1590 probably the date of a marriage between two families

The doors and the drawers are decorated with wooden marquetry

The sides are decorated with heads of cherubs
