Description

Charming rectangular mirror in gilded wood with a molded and beaded frame, topped with a large openwork pediment representing a large flowered vase surrounded by foliage and leaves. On each side, pompoms form falls on the top of the frame. In the lower part, we find striated wooden elements and pine cones, in the pure Louis XVI style, decorating the underside. This mirror gilded with gold leaf, fitted with an original mercury mirror and gracefully crafted will charm you with its poetic ornamentation and shimmering color.
