Description

Rare bergère armchair in solid mahogany of small size, with an enveloping shape and a polychrome fabric with stylized floral motifs. The backrest has a violin shape for a comfortable installation. The refurbished seat is traditionally mounted on straps and springs. The fabric in perfect condition is studded. The armrests are covered. The belt is cut and molded like the whole structure and the legs are humped and curved in the Louis XV style. This small bergère, combining character and distinction, can be harmonized in an elegant interior.  Period: Mid-19th century
Perfect condition after restoration in our workshop. Additional photos available by clicking on the following link:
