

Oil On Canvas, Haute Epoque Interior By Alphonse Muraton

1 100 EUR

Signature : Alphonse Muraton

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 29

Height : 24

Description

Small view of a high period interior, with a pretty classic and romantic touch, good mastery of perspective and framing

MURATON Alphonse Born in 1824 in Tours (Indre-et-Loire).

Died December 23, 1911 at Source-Maré (near Ménars, Loir-et-Cher).

Nineteenth century. French.

Painter of religious subjects, genre scenes, portraits, pastel artists.

He is the husband of Euphémie Muraton. He was a pupil of the School of Drawing of Tours, then of Michel Drolling. He exhibited at the Paris Salon where he won a medal in 1868.

Dealer

Galerie Saint-Martin

Antics, Furniture, Paintings, Fine art

Tel : 01-42-60-83-65

5 et 11 rue des Saints-Pères

Paris 75006

MUSEUMS: AVIGNON (Mus. Calvet):

Joseph-Balharzar Silvestre - MOULIN: Monk in

prayer - REIMS (Mus. des Beaux-Arts): Olivier

Metra - TOURS: Le général Meusnier at Fort

Koenigstein - Repentant young man guided by an angel - Gravedigger monk - The conversation -

Al. Pimbert, finance inspector - VERSAILLES:

Defense of Paris at the Clichy barrier.