Description

Renowned cabinet in walnut and ivory inlays with leafy arabesque motifs opening with a flap richly worked with a coat of arms with cherubs on a guilloché background, revealing an interior opening with four drawers in arcades, the whole resting on a base decorated with grotesque heads supported by three caryatids with putti heads.
Loire Valley
work. Early XVII.
History: Our cabinet is undoubtedly the result of an order on the occasion of a marriage which explains the presence of coats of arms on the flap.
Dimensions: height 129cm - width 130cm - depth 73cm
