Description

Important spelter titled "Le Pêcheur à la Ligne" signed on the terrace by Sylvain Kindsburger (1855-1935), French sculptor, known for the quality of his work which has never been rewarded. This spelter with triple patinas (green, brown and bronze) represents a young boy, dressed in trousers with suspenders, seated on a tree trunk. This child lifts the line of his fishing rod after hooking a fish. The work "Le Pêcheur à la Ligne" is an ode to youth, it will appeal to art lovers for the finesse of its work. *****

Period: Early 20th century Excellent condition.
