Description

Charming bench in solid walnut with refined lines, with openwork armrests, composed on the top of a wooden element carved with floral motifs and curved at the ends. These armrests are embellished with a large, elegantly engraved decorative lyre. They rest on four turned feet connected at the bottom by turned bars with a fancy sculpture in the center. This seat has a recent traditional seat upholstered in a beautiful pink fabric, decorated with pale yellow patterns. This pretty bench with its harmonious shape will easily find a place in your interior thanks to its dimensions.  Period: Late 19th century
