Description

Couple of bronze subjects with brown patina, signed Laurini on the embankment, after Louis and François Moreau. Known respectively as Auguste (1855-1919) and Hippolyte Moreau (1832-1926), these French sculptors are known for their work, which has won many awards. This pair presents a shepherdess, dressed in a long dress, her staff on her shoulder, accompanied by a sheep. These works also depict a shepherd wearing a sheepskin on his back and walking while helping himself with his cane next to his dog. These two subjects rest on a circular base in bronze and grooved. This shepherd and this shepherdess will particularly appeal to lovers of art and finely crafted objects.  Period: Early 20th century Excellent condition.
