Description

Original ice wall table. 2nd part of the 20th century. This console is leaned against the wall and therefore not decorated on the reverse. It is rectangular in shape with closed sides and ogee jamb on the front (S-shaped). The top, the low shelf, the bottom, the interior and exterior uprights as well as the headbands are lined with a mirror. The upper band is decorated with small stars with a polished effect and the outer glass of the uprights is enhanced with a darker border. The lower crosspiece is slightly curved. The table rests on 4 top legs. Note a slightly cracked glass in the lower part of the right interior upright (discreet, however, see photo 6). Traces of use. Good state of presentation.
