Description

A unique antique brooch in French 18-carat yellow gold, a true masterpiece of the Art Deco era. This exquisite brooch features a cameo delicately carved on onyx, decorated with exquisite finesse in cookie. Made in France around 1930, this period piece perfectly embodies the style and craftsmanship of this iconic period.

The cameo is the central element of this brooch, offering a striking contrast between black onyx and luminous yellow gold. Carved with exceptional meticulousness, the cameo presents a classic scene, revealing an impressive level of detail. Soft contours and delicate relief give the cameo remarkable depth and artistic presence.

The setting of this brooch is made of 18-carat
