Description

Original Anglepoise desk lamp
England
c. 1940

The Anglepoise lamp is a balanced arm lamp designed in 1932 by British designer George Carwardine.
Manufactured and released by Herbert Terry & Sons in 1935.

Fully restored to perfect working order.
Polished aluminum and rechromed parts.
Also available in restored black paint.
Rewired and grounded.

We restore these lamps in our own workshops in London and Germany to a very high standard.
