Description

CABIE Louis Alexandre

Born May 25, 1853 in Dol (Ile-et-Vilaine). Died in 1939.

French. Landscape painter, gouache painter, watercolourist.

Pupil of Harpignies and Pradelles, he began to participate in the Salon of French Artists in 1887, obtaining several medals.

Knight of the Legion of Honour. Highly influenced by Corot and Théodore Rousseau, he painted landscapes in bold layouts and an enamelled palette.

Let us quote from him: Winter - The cottage in Andernos - The big oak tree.
